

Pilot Grant Program in Prostate Cancer Research

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS

WHAT IS THE MIKE SLIVE FOUNDATION?

The Mike Slive Foundation endeavors to become a global leader in the fight to eradicate prostate cancer through public awareness and research funding in memory of Mike Slive, a transformative leader whose vision and direction revolutionized the business of collegiate sports.

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS:

Please email a three-page description of the research proposed, your NIH Biosketch or CV and a brief layman's overview (300 words) to emily@mikeslivefoundation.org. The overview and bibliography are not included in the three-page limit. For questions call (205) 903-4324 or email emily@mikeslivefoundation.org, Emily Capilouto, MPH, MA.

DEADLINE: OCTOBER 1, 2019

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants: The Mike Slive Foundation Pilot Grant Program in Prostate Cancer Research is open to all faculty and clinicians interested in innovative prostate cancer research.

Purpose: To support highly meritorious scientific research in prostate cancer. Applications in all areas of research, including basic mechanisms, translational studies, clinical therapeutic interventions, public health and epidemiology, are encouraged. This award is intended to "seed" nascent prostate cancer projects that will become competitive for extramural funding with the data generated as a result of receiving pilot funds.

Funding: A minimum of three applications will be funded (with an award of $50,000 or more) for a 12-month period beginning January 1, 2020.
